Ill6eK

UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS
MAY 12 1922

The Twenty-third Annual Commencement

Eastern Illinois State Teachers College

Charleston

May the fourth to June the second nineteen hundred and twenty-two

Music Festival
May the fourth and fifth

Children's Chorus by pupils of the Charleston Public Schools and the Training School of the Teachers College
Miss Elsa Diemer and Mr. Eugene Francis Dressler, Soloists
Thursday afternoon, May the fourth, two o'clock

The Mass Chorus
Miss Elsa Diemer, Soprano — Mr. Eugene Francis Dressler, Tenor
Miss Frieda Klink, Contralto — Mr. Graham Marr, Baritone
Thursday evening, May the fourth, eight o'clock

Contests of High School Choruses and Soloists
Friday afternoon, May the fifth, two o'clock

Operetta: The Princess Dorothea
By the Pupils of the Training School
Friday evening, May the fifth, eight o'clock

High School Field Meet and Oratorical Contest
Saturday, May the sixth

Demonstration by the Department of Physical Education
Thursday, May the eighteenth
Half past four o'clock on the Campus

High School Senior Class Plays
Wurzel-Flummery by Alan Alexander Milne
The Wonder Hat by Ben Hecht and K. S. Goodman
Neighbors by Zona Gale
Monday evening, May the fifteenth
Half past seven o'clock in the Assembly Hall

Junior College Party given by the Freshman Class In Honor of the Graduating Class

Tuesday evening, May the twenty-third
Half past seven o'clock

Alumni Day

Saturday, May the twenty-seventh

Art Exhibition

Saturday, May the twenty-seventh
Third floor east

Address to the Graduating Class Experiencing Religion

By Mr. L. C. Lord, President of the College
Sunday evening, May the twenty-eighth
Eight o'clock in the Assembly Hall

Junior College Plays given by the Graduating Class

Gringoire, the Ballad Monger by Arthur Shirley A Pair of Knickerbockers by Eden Phillpotts
Mansions by Hildegarde Flanner
Monday evening, May the twenty-ninth
Eight o'clock in the Assembly Hall

President's Reception to the College Graduating Classes and the Faculty

Thursday evening, June the first

Graduating Exercises

Address: The American
By Mr. E. H. Taylor, Head of the Department of Mathematics
Friday morning, June the second
Ten o'clock in the Assembly Hall

3 0112 105727850